4—Gift of Recreation Ground, &c.—The Mayor laid before the Council the following letter received from Messrs. Winterbotham, Gurney and Co., solicitors, on behalf of Mr. W. H. Horsley :—

DEAR SIR, We are instructed by our client, Mr. William Henry Horsley, of Filey Lawn, to ask the Corporation to accept from him, as a memorial of his many years' residence in his native town and long business connection with it, the gift of a Recreation Ground for the East Ward, together with a block of Cottage Homes which he proposes to erect upon a portion of the ground and to suitably endow.

Mr. Horsley has been concerned to see the number of children in the thickly-populated district adjoining the Hale's Road who do not live within reach of the Whaddon Lane Recreation Ground, and whose only playground is apparently the streets, and he wishes to offer, as the site of a further Recreation Ground, six and a half acres of freehold pasture land having a frontage to the Hale's Road and situate on the south side of Battledown Lawn.

On a portion of the land Mr. Horsley proposed to build a block of Cottage Homes, similar in design to those now being erected for him on behalf of the Strickland Trust, in the Hale's Road, and he will endow them with a sum sufficient to produce income to discharge all outgoing, for repairs and rates and taxes, and to provide 4/- or 5/- a week for each occupant of the Cottage Homes.

Our client would like to retain the general management of the right of nomination of inmates to the Cottage Homes, when erected, during his life. With this slight reservation, however, he would vest both the land and the houses in the Corporation in perpetuity.

Mr. Horsley will, of course, look to the Corporation to provide a suitable custodian of the land, and to undertake the upkeep of it as a public Recreation Ground. He trusts that in addition to the children and the inmates of the Cottage Homes, many of the elder inhabitants of the East Ward will use the ground, from which, as it rises on the east towards Battledown, pleasant views can be obtained. The only charge upon the property is tithe, of the present annual value of £1 11s. 3d.

We may perhaps mention that the cost to our client of carrying out the above scheme will be about £5,000.

If the Town Council, as we trust will be the case, accept the gift, Mr. Horsley will propose to complete the conveyance of the property to the Corporation and to hand over the possession of the land on or about the 29th September next. In the meantime, it would greatly facilitate his arrangements if an early reply can be returned to his proposal.

We are, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

WINTERBOTHAM, GURNEY & CO.

Resolved, That the warmest thanks of the Council be conveyed to Mr. Horsley for his generous offer, which they gratefully accept on behalf of the town.
